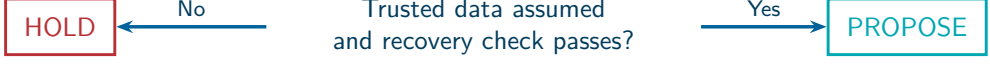
Do the readings fit the model?

Is recovery supported?



L9 assumes those extra readings are trusted. The numerical tool does not authenticate them.