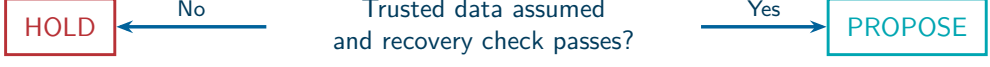
Do the readings fit the model?

Is recovery supported?



The extra readings are assumed trustworthy. The numerical tool does not authenticate them.